Immediate Postpartum LARC Learning Session
August 7, 2018

Introductions

Current Infant Projects
- Reddy Sharmaditya, MD
  Infant Medical Director
- Patti Scott, DNP, NNP-BC, C-NPT
  Infant Quality Improvement Specialist

- Improving Nutrition & Growth in Very Low Birth Weight Infants
- Antibiotic Stewardship
- Optimizing Care of the 35-36 Week in the Newborn Nursery

Current Maternal Projects
- Nikki Zito, MD, MPH
  Maternal Medical Director

- Suzan McMurtry Baird, DNP, RN
  Maternal Quality Improvement Specialist

- AIM Opioid Use Disorder (Planning Phase)
Awards

GOLD LEVEL
- Meets Silver and Bronze level criteria
- Participation in 100% of huddles
- 100% of providers and nurses trained for IPPLARC

SILVER LEVEL
- Meets Bronze level criteria
- Participation in 90% of huddles
- 90% of providers and nurses trained for IPPLARC

BRONZE LEVEL
- Participation in 80% of huddles
  - Developed required tools, systems, and processes for implementation and evaluation
  - On-time and complete monthly REDCap data entry through January 1, 2019

The aim of this project is to improve the health of infants as well as eligible, desiring mothers in Tennessee by increasing access to contraception through systematically promoting and supporting immediate postpartum LARC in the birth setting in Tennessee, thus reducing unplanned pregnancies, NAS births, and improve pregnancy spacing.

UPDATE FROM THE STATE

UPDATE FROM THE TEAMS

Monthly Leadership Report

Aim: (include your numeric goals)

Why is this important?

Changes

- Please write out goals from Project Report
- Chart Name
- Date
- Senior Role

Lessons Learned/Anecdotes

Graph of Measures

Senior Role/Recommendations/Next Steps

Patient Involvement

IHI Rating Scale

PATIENT CENTERED IPP LARC
Racial Inclusivity
Socioeconomic Inclusivity

Barriers to IPP LARC

Billing
Coding
Reimbursement
Stocking

Data